

Applying Google+ for linkbuilding / dofollow links in Google+
Version 2.0 (last updated: april 7, 2014)

Verhaal

Beschrijving
Owner SEOguru, research and training center, search engine optimization (SEO) through publications/books, training, coaching and consultancy.

Introductie
Dutch SEO pioneer, engineer, researcher, trainer and writer. Guided by Alain Sadon, literally thousands of companies have succeeded in creating a thriving internet business.

In the core of his being, Alain is a teacher. By educating people and companies, he supports them in becoming as independent as possible of shadowy internet bureaus.

Alain Sadon now daily operates guiding companies to bring their SEO efforts to a higher level, through his popular book "SEO for web professionals", the seo trainings (basic training, specialization for web developers, copywriters and social seo) and seo coachings around specific questions and problems.

In the SEOguru.nl website you can find a lot of SEO information. The site also contains the #1 seo forum in the Netherlands.

Interessante weetjes
Voorbeelden: heb de middelbare school overleefd, heb 3 kinderen, enz.

Optimization Index Potential (OPI), SEO Process Optimization and the Law of Diminishing Returns!
#seo #websites #searchengineoptimization

RankWise originally shared:
Optimization Potential Index (OPI) for SEO process optimization

Our OPI algorithm is based on a mathematical concept that calculates the optimal optimization action given the circumstance at that time. This formula was developed by RankWise / Arjen Karel as a method for optimizing the search engine optimization process. We have come to call our algorithm the Optimization Potential Index and OPI for short.
